GOV. GLENN SENDS MESSAGE

Congratulates Lawmakers on Satisfactory Settlement of Bond Situation.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) RALEIGH, N. C., March 2 .- In the General Assembly to-day a message from Governor Glenn was read congratulating the Legislature on the satisfactory settlement of the South Dakota and Schafer Brothers bond claims and asking that the Assembly do not adjourn before March 6th or 7th, so as to have ample time to pass a bill authorizing a bond issue to accomplish the settlement, such a sue to accomplish the settlement, such a bill being able to pass only one reading a day in each branch of the Assembly. The bond bill passed its second reading in the House after the reading of the Governor's message. The general public school bill passed its second reading as it came from the Senate, and the Ecureral appropriation bill was passed and sent to the Senate. The Senate passed a bill to prevent the Southern Tariff Association from prohibiting insurance agents from accepting more than fifteen per cent. commission from companies. It is expected that this will precipitate an insurance rate war by the companies in the Tariff Association against the local or the home companies. The Senate and House formally elected the trustoes for the State University as recommended some days age by the committee.

The Stronach bill prohibiting fraudulent advertising by merchants for fire sales, etc. as passed the House, was unanimously tabled. An unusual bill, passed by the Senate, is to prohibit the sale of coga cela, Peruna and Ilquor near Goldston Graded School, in Chatham centry.

Suit Against Seaboard.

The damage suit of Cunningham and Hinshaw, of Liverpoot, Eng., vs. the Seaboard Air Line for the burning of a large amount of cotton in the compross at Hamlet two years ago, has ongaged the attention of the Wake Superior Court all this week, and will likely require all the remainder of the week. The damage asked is $12,000. The suit for damages to the amount of $10,000 for the burning of W. M. Wilson in the sanie fire has been continued and set for trial as the first case at the April torm of court.

Preparations are being made to resume work on the splendid $6,000 granite Church of the Good Shophord, on Hilbsboro Street. The walls are about up. The work will be resumed as soon as the winter is sufficiently broken and will not be suspended again until the building is completed, which will be some time in the fail, Dr. 1. McK. ## GRUBB MURDER CASE IS MOVED

Be Tried in May

WANTED, A FIRST-CLASS MEAT cutter. Apply 116 W. Broad Street. in Rowan HELP WANTED-Female.

County.

NO BAIL WAS ASKED FOR

LEXINGTON, N. C., March 2.-Judge

Bryan this morning ordered the removal of the Clay Grubb murder case to Rowan county. The case will be taken up on Wednesday of the first week of the May term of court. After hearing argument for about an hour the judge said he thought the case should be moved, and that he did not think the State could get

He asked counsel for defense if they had any suggestion as to the county in which to try the case, and gave them

choice of Rowan, Iredell or Randolph, Counsel for Grubb wanted Davie, and Solicitor Hammer suggested Guilford,

No application for release of Grubb on ball was made.

The facts in the charge of murder are as follows;

The facts in the charge of murder are as follows;

On the 18th day of October 18st, which was Sunday, H. Clay Grubb, accompanied by his wife, drove up to Placy Baplist Church, in Davidson county. Church was going on at the time, and a large congregation was present inside and out of the building. He drove up to a tree to hitch his horse; got out and went to the horses' heads. His brother-in-law, Ob L. Davis, was standing in about twenty feet, talking to a man named Crump. Here the witnesses differ, some claiming that Grubb immediately opened fire with a .4i calibre pistol. Davis was shot through the neck sideways at the first shot; a second struck his body, passing through, and a third pierced his leg. Davis fell, and later was turned over. A pistol dropped from his pocket, but had not been out before.

Grubb claims he was going from his buggy to the church when he met Davis, and the latter quickly nut his hand to Grubb claims he was going from his buggy to the church when he met Dayls, and the latter quickly put his hand to his hip pocket. Ho then fired in self-defense. The two men had been friends and partners in business up to about three weeks prior to the killing. It is said threats to kill on sight had passed heads and forth said threats to kill on sight had passed back and forth.

Bath men were considered dangerous. Ordinarily quiet and peaceable, they were both adept at gun play. They had each been in shooting scrapes before. They had each been engaged in the manufacture of whiskey for several years, and had accumulated conditionable wealth.

A noteworthy fact or the supersti-tious is that Grubb is represented by just thirteen lawyers, some of whom are the most brilliant in the State.
